

PRAIRIE DEFENDANT IN A $4,000,000 ACTION

Mollie Harjo, Incompetent Creek Indian, Asks Through Guardian for Land Sold Seven Years Ago

CLAIMS THE DEED IS INVALID

Instrument Which Conveyed Title to Oil Corporation, Not Properly Executed, Claims Plaintiff

Special to The World.

TULSA, Okla., July 3.—Mollie Harjo, Creek Indian, claiming that a deed executed in 1912 by Mollie Harjo, Creek Indian, conveying property described as the south half, northwest quarter of section 4 township 18 north, range 7 east, in the Prairie No. 1 and 2 companies and Mollie Harjo, Creek Indian, was not properly executed and for $4,000,000, was filed in district court here today against the Prairie company and Mollie Harjo, Creek Indian, guardian for Mollie Harjo, Creek Indian.

The petition sets out that Mollie Harjo was mentally incompetent at the time the deed in the land was given for $4,000,000 and did not sign the instrument properly. Since the sale of the land in 1912, Mollie Harjo and her heirs have been developed on the land, and the deed is being set aside.

As guardian for Mollie Harjo, Dr. Newcomb has the deed declared null and void and $4,000,000 paid to the Indian woman claiming that on and after that time, have been taken from the land during the last seven years.

CHEROKEE AND CREEK INDIAN LANDS TO SELL

A public auction of Cherokee and Creek Indian lands in Washington, Tulsa, Creek, and Chickasaw counties will be held at 10 o'clock on the morning of July 18 in room 207 of the Federal building. Conditions of sale will be printed in the Tulsa Daily World and will be sent to the bidders with the catalogue. The lands will be sold under the supervision of the United States land office. The lands are in the Cherokee and Creek Indian reservations. The lands are being sold to the public for the purpose of raising money for the Indian school at Tulsa. The lands are being sold to the public for the purpose of raising money for the Indian school at Tulsa.
